► CUFF HT3668

H. Theophile's unique line of fin cuffs is an engineered solution integrating recessed pulls into a flush-mounted, wrap-around design.

Shown here for pocket doors, the HT3668 is characterized by crisp square corners and is available in a range of sizes and functions. Cuffs are made to order by project to suit door thicknesses and finishes, and can be combined with a concealed bolt or cremone mechanism for privacy function.
