► KNOB HT4209 - BACKPLATE HT3286b

A border of richly-detailed acanthus leaves defines the face of the HT4209 knob, an unusual, early 19th century classical knob. It can be combined with a variety of backplate styles.

The HT3286b rosette is ornamented with ringed, concentric half-beads. See HT3286b for additional backplate information.
